JOANNE OPGENORTH began violin studies in her native Edmonton at the age of three. She graduated last May with a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of British Columbia where she studied with John Loban. Her current teacher is Lorand Fenyves at the University of Toronto.

Joanne has appeared as soloist with the U.B.C. Symphony, the U.B.C. Chamber Strings, and the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra. Several of her performances have been broadcast on CBC. In 1984 she was awarded a Johann Strauss Foundation Scholarship which took her to Austria for summer study at the Hochschule Mozarteum. Other awards include the 1985 Harry and Marjorie Ann Slimm Award, and top prizes in the Vancouver Women's Musical Club, the Vancouver Symphony Women's Committee and the Friends of Chamber Music Competitions. Joanne is presently touring Canada as the winner of the 1985 Eckhardt-Gramatté Competition.

A previous winner of the Eckhardt-Gramatté Competition, JAMES PARKER completed the Bachelor of Music degree in 1985 at the University of British Columbia. He is the recent recipient of a Canada Council award to enable him to further his performance studies with Adele Marcus at the Julliard School.

*This tour is being sponsored by the S.C. ECKHARDT-GRAMATTE
National Music Competition, Brandon, Manitoba*

The Faculty of Music cordially invites you to attend other events in the Edward Johnson Building.
